Dear Client,

Enclosed is the 2010 U.S. Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, for The American Chestnut Foundation for the tax year ending June 30, 2011.

Your 2010 U.S. Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, return will be electronically filed. Please sign and return the enclosed Form 8879 IRS e-file Signature Authorization form to our office as soon as possible to ensure the return is filed on time.

We utilize our staff and certain independently contracted certified public accountants to prepare your income tax returns based on the information you provided us. We have relied on the information which you submitted to us as being true, complete, and accurate. Please review the returns carefully to ensure that there are no omissions or misstatements of material facts. You are responsible for the substantial accuracy of any financial records provided to us, and the full and accurate disclosure to us of all relevant facts affecting the returns. You have final responsibility for the tax returns and, therefore, should review the returns carefully before signing or authorizing for e-file to ensure that there are no omissions of misstatements of material facts.

If, during our work, we discover information that affects prior year tax returns, we will make you aware of the facts. However, we cannot be responsible for identifying all items that may affect prior year returns. If you become aware of such information during the year, please contact us to discuss the best resolution of the issue. We will be happy to prepare appropriate amended returns as a separate engagement.

The Internal Revenue Code and regulations impose preparation and disclosure standards with noncompliance penalties on both the preparer of a tax return and on the taxpayer. To avoid exposure to these penalties, it may be necessary in some cases to make certain disclosures to you and/or in the tax return concerning positions taken on the return that do not meet these standards. Accordingly, we will advise you if we identify such a situation, and we will discuss those tax positions that may increase the risk of exposure to penalties and any recommended disclosures before completing the preparation of the return. If we conclude that we are obligated to disclose a position and you refuse to permit disclosure, we reserve the right to withdraw from the engagement. Likewise, where we disagree about the obligation to disclose a position, you also have the right to choose another professional to prepare your return. In either event, you agree to compensate us for our services to the date of withdrawal. Our engagement with you will terminate upon our withdrawal.

The IRS and various state permit you to authorize us to discuss, on a limited basis, aspects of your return for one year after the return's due date. Your consent to such a discussion is evidenced by checking a box on the return. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will check that box authorizing the IRS or applicable state to discuss your return with us.

Certain communications involving tax advice may be privileged and not subject to disclosure to the IRS. By disclosing the contents of those communications to anyone, or by turning over information about those communications to the government, you, or your employees or agents, may be waiving this privilege. To protect this right to privileged communication, please consult with us or your attorney prior to disclosing any information about our tax advice. Should you decide it is appropriate for us to disclose any potentially privileged communication, you agree to provide us with written, advance authority to make that disclosure.

Should we receive any request for the disclosure of privileged information from any third party, including a subpoena or IRS summons, we will notify you. In the event you direct us not to make disclosure, you agree to hold us harmless from any expenses incurred in defending the privilege, including, by way of illustration only, our attorney's fees, court costs, outside advisor's costs, or penalties or fines imposed as a result of your asserting the privilege or your direction to us to assert privilege.

The returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on your return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of a tax examination, we will be available, upon request, to represent you. However, such additional services are not included in our fees for the preparation of the tax returns.

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. After 7 years our workpapers and files will no longer be available. Physical deterioration or catastrophic events may shorten the time during which our records will be available.

If you have any questions about your tax returns, please contact us. We appreciate this opportunity to serve you.

Sincerely,

James M. Cusack, CPA
