The American Chestnut Foundation seeks new President and CEO

Bennington, VT – The American Chestnut Foundation (TACF) is currently searching for a new President and CEO. Following Marshal Case's announced intention to transition into a different position later this year, the TACF board retained BoardWalk Consulting, a search firm specializing in nonprofits and foundations, to conduct the search for Marshal's successor. For more information about this opportunity, please contact Sam Pettway at BoardWalk Consulting, 404-262-7392 or email sam@boardwalkconsulting.com or download document here for a complete description of responsibilities.

The goal of The American Chestnut Foundation is to restore the American chestnut tree to its native range within the woodlands of the eastern United States. The American Chestnut Foundation is a nonprofit 501(c)-3 organization with more than 6,000 members around the world and chapters in 17 states. For more information about The American Chestnut Foundation and its search for a new CEO, visit www.acf.org.
